

EAT NO MORE - by Chef Ryan Smith & Savor Your Senses

Wednesday, 2/17 @ 7:00pm

$125/ticket

The title says it all. This could literally be the last time you ever need to eat. I have been tasked to create a feast and celebration worthy of its name... and that is exactly what I promise to deliver. Teaming up again with my dear friend, concert pianist and all around bad ass, Elaine Kwon of Savor Your Senses, on February 17th we will transform New York Vintners into a 1920's era speakeasy!

3 FLOORS - 3 ACTS - 3 COURSES - WINE PAIRINGS - PRIZES FOR BEST DRESSED... and much more!

The event will include a sparkling wine reception, hundreds of shucked crustaceans, live performances throughout the evening by award winning musicians and a dinner paired with some of my favorite wines. Guests are encouraged to dress up and we are giving out prizes for the best costumes.

This event is expected to sell out quickly!

Tickets for our last 4 pop-up events were gone in less than 24 hours. - Act ASAP
